VOTES.—Votes for State and County officers for this County can be had by calling at this office. The Town Committees should see that their towns are supplied.

We shall print votes for other Counties they may be ordered.

We have been informed that there are 105 men enrolled in the Company now recruiting at Hyderpark, and that probably R. C. Benton will be chosen Captain.

Norwich University.

MR. EDITOR:—I wish through your columns to call the attention of the people of this State to the University of Norwich as an element of strength in the State; and lest I should be charged with personal interest or educational prejudice, I would say, in the outset, that I am in no way connected with the Institution and never was; yet I feel that the people of Vermont cannot afford to neglect this Institution in the future as they have in the past. For years the martial feeling has been dying out in New England. We have sneered ironically at the "chivalry," and assigning everything "chivalrous" to the pre-Quixotic Quixotes, of the middle ages, we have tossed the books containing their records on the upper shelf in the library, among the things out of date and requisition. We have had too much expectation, and really too little faith that the time was soon at hand when "swords and spears" should "prune and plough." But this time has not come yet, and probably will not until the Millennium. In this world the greatest procure, safeguard, and perpetuator of peace, is the known ability of a nation to conquer it.
Necessary to this, in a country like ours, is a well-educated and thoroughly disciplined Militia, or at least one officered from first to last with educated, practical men. The unfortunate, we had almost said fatal, results of the want of such men, need not be mentioned to those who have watched our country for the last three months.
Almost no State has such an opportunity for raising up for itself a citizen soldiery, which shall have all the power and efficiency of a standing army, and yet every man of which shall be a worthy and valued civilian and patriot, as Vermont. The means are within her borders, everything ready at her hand.

I hardly know how to speak of Norwich University, or in what terms to express its character or its deserts. For years it has been struggling against an adverse public sentiment, and with no funds has kept itself alive, quietly and unostentatiously done its work, and sent forth, from time to time, its men, who are doing their work as teachers, engineers, civilians and military men, with success and honor where-ever they are; and the Institution with its present prosperity and efficiency, is a monument of the patience and faithfulness of its present learned, energetic and devoted Faculty. It is the pioneer of scientific schools in this Country, and in point of fact, one of the most thorough.
It is not simply a Military School, but this is simply one department, as the Classical or Natural Sciences, in this or any other College. It confers the degrees of B. S. or B. A., according to which course of study the graduate has persued. Combining the Physical, Mental and Practical better than any other Institution in New England, it has, for years, been offering advantages alike to North and South, but public sentiment among us being opposed to a military, combined with other departments of education, we have failed to profit by it, but the South has done it. Its own refusal, and it "turned to the Gentiles." For several years, at the request of citizens of Southern States, plans of the Institution have been sent to these States, and Institutions have sprung up, children of this University, which are now using their power against the Federal Government, and against loyal Vermont. These plans have been sent to Virginia, Georgia, Mississippi, South Carolina, Alabama, and several other States South, while we at the North have spurned the gift it has been urging upon our acceptance. "My brethren, these things ought not so to be."

Now what we wish is, that the State should do something for this Institution. It does not ask that the State should place funds at its disposal, nor endow a long list of Professorships, nor establish a multitude of State scholarships, nor indeed does it ask anything that we know of; but the State owes it to itself to avail itself of all its resources. Let it take its Institution by the hand, encourage it by its notice, and the people to its patronage. Let the State speak through its authoritative exponents, in its favor. Let it appropriate enough money to enable it to fire a few hundred rounds of shot and shell each year, and hire horses for its artillery during these drills. Let it endow, perhaps, one military Professorship, and show that it really takes an interest in an Institution which is able to repay it, in its beneficial results, more than double for all it receives, and there will spring up at once, almost, a citizen soldiers of such intelligence and efficiency as the country has not yet known. The period of miracles has passed. The day of the glory of rams' horns has departed. Other things being equal, Providence is, in these days, on the side of the best artillery and the most skillful strategists. Vermont has the means and the material; now give her the training. The spirit of the Allens and the Warners is not yet dead.— The hearts of the Green Mountain Boys, God bless them! are as brave and as loyal to-day, as on the morning when their old hero demanded the surrender of Ticonderoga. Give them the training, give them the training. Let Athens and Sparta unite in the Vermont character, and every voter shall be a hero, and every hero shall be a MAN.

Chelsea, Aug. 1861.

POULTNEY is evidently intending to have a "time" as witness the following notice:

Sons and Daughters of Poultney.

Your Mother SENDETH GREETING.

The present residents of Poultney, Vt., wishing to do honor to our common mother, have resolved to celebrate her hundredth birth day with befitting ceremonies.

On September 21, 1861, She will be a century old.

And on that day we wish to welcome all the wandering Sons and Daughters of Poultney "at the old Homestead, to recount the joys and sorrows of" Auld Lang Syne, and make a record for the future.

JOSEPH JOSLIN.

Pres. of Centennial Association.

NORWICH UNIVERSITY.—We call the attention of our readers to the communication of "Kappa" in this paper urging the State to do something for the Military School at Norwich. The suggestions of our correspondent deserve a thoughtful and earnest consideration.

R. B. Grondall is appointed assistant recruiting officer for the towns of Berlin and Brookfield.

From the Third Regiment.

CAMP LYON, August 21.

MR. EDITOR:—Feeling a slight attack of the scribbling mania, I cannot refrain from noticing a few of the many current events of the day. A copy of the Freeman bearing date Aug. 13th is lying before me, and after perusing its contents for a few minutes, I find that the war news reaches Vermont by mail, although I have written seven or eight letters, and have received no answer yet, and others are complaining of the same trouble. But after noticing the communications to the Freeman, I am inspired with courage that I may perhaps, "with your permission," through the medium of your paper inform some of my friends and acquaintances that "I still live," and an enjoying better health than many of our Regiment. Our Regiment, when compared with others, and when we take into account the exposure incident to soldier life, change of climate, &c., enjoys a pre-eminence in health that speaks well for the hardy sons of the Green Mountains.— There were many cases of measles before we left Camp Baxter, and I think as many as sixty or seventy were left there, or between here and there, who were not able to come with us; but they have most of them recovered, and are now here. I have not been on the sick list a whole day since I enlisted. There are not many in Company who can say the like. We enjoy ourselves as best we can, although many of the boys wish themselves back again—a result which might be expected, as they looked only upon the sunny side. For myself, I can truly say that my anticipations have been more than realized in regard to fare, rations, exposure, duty, and most of all, health.

We have eight roll calls a day, viz: morning call, 5 A. M.; battalion drill at 6; breakfast at 7; target shooting at 9; dinner at 12; Company drill, 2 P. M.; battalion drill at 5; supper at 6 1/2; dress-parade at sundown; last call at 9 1/2 o'clock.

This afternoon we had a general review. At 2 1/2 o'clock the brigade was marched upon the ground usually occupied for such purposes, with knapsacks and all our equipments on.— By the way, the brigade so far consists of the New York 33d Regiment, the Maine 6th, a full Company of artillery from Pennsylvania, another commanded by Capt. Mott, a New York Company of cavalry, also one from Texas, the Vermont 21st, and 2 stationary batteries. At our review, many of us saw, for the first time, President Lincoln, Vice President Hamlin, Gen.
McClellan and his Staff, besides several other persons of distinction.

I don't know as you can read what I have written. You must consider that it was penned upon my knee, which is not the most convenient writing-desk.

Yours, &c., R. E. L.

Co. K., 3d Regiment, V. V. M.

THE KNICKERBOCKER FOR SEPTEMBER comes to us and receives the welcome of an old friend; although we had pretty much come to the conclusion that if it failed to visit us this month, as it has for several months previous, we should make the spiteful suggestion that it had been suppressed. But on seeing its dear old familiar face our anger melted at once into a smile of warm recognition, and we "went in" immediately for a good time.

The first article, "What shall we do with our South?" by G. C. Leland, is a short, vigorous refutation of the so-called unanswerable argument "that cotton cannot be cultivated except by black slave labor; and several other heresies by help of which the South has for a long time been able to silence the potential voice of the nation against the evil and wrong of chattel Slavery. We shall give our readers a taste of this article as soon as we can find space for it. "Before and after the Battle," a graphic, apparently unexaggerated and truthful account, by G. P. Putnam, of the retreat of our army after the battle at Bull Run, is in many respects the best narrative of that disaster to our arms we have seen. "The Dirge of the Privateers;" "Bull Run;" are poetical contributions, giving beautiful expression to the patriotic feelings of loyal hearts. Besides these contributions so much in keeping with the events each day transpiring, the Knickerbocker keeps up its old reputation as the depository of much of the valuable current literature of the day, first visiting us in its pages. The Editor's Table is of course full of good things.

Washington, Aug. 26.—Orders were forwarded to-day to the U. S. Pension agents to administer to all pensioners the oath of allegiance to the U. S. prescribed by the late law of Congress.

Richard Wallace, Esq., was elected Mayor of Washington this afternoon by the city Council, to fill the vacancy occasioned by Berrett's arrest.

The Navy Department has a prompt method of dealing with disloyalists. In addition to other cases A. D. Wharton, a midshipman on board the Seminole tendered his resignation, but he was removed and sent to Fort La Fayette.

Rev. John M. Green, Chaplain of the Penn.
10th Regiment, who acted as its Postmaster is in jail charged with opening letters and abstracting money therefrom.

Col. McCann has been honorably acquitted of the charges preferred against him before the court martial. The scene in the regiment on the announcement of the fact was most enthusiastic.

Cincinnati, August 26. A Union man named Moore was killed, and another named Neill mortally wounded, Sunday afternoon, by a gang of five secessionists, at Shotwell toll gate, Ky., seven miles from Covington. Both were stabbed in the back. A party of Unionists gave pursuit to the murderers, who have fled toward the Tennessee line.

Ironton, Mo. Aug. 24. Reports to-day give information of Gen. Hardee's forces which are withdrawing from Greenville towards Reeve's Ferry which they are fortifying; also to Peter's Station near the Arkansas line. This seems to confirm previous reports that the eastern division is hastening to join General Pillow. A strong body of Jeff. Thompson's is said to have occupied Benton, eight miles back of Lawrence, where they are throwing up fortifications.

BY TELEGRAPH TO THE FREEMAN.

6 O'CLOCK, A. M.

CAIRO, Aug. 25.

A private of Moore's Regiment arrived from Athens, Mo., last night. He states that Green is approaching that place with a force estimated variously at from 1500 to 3000. The Union pickets which were 16 miles out, have been driven in. Col. Moore has 900 men and four cannon, and 300 men left here last night and this morning to reinforce him. Gen. Hurlburt is reported to be behind Green with 600 Union troops.

NEW YORK, August 26.

The United States Marshal Murray seized six large packages of the Daily News at the office of the American Express this morning, addressed to parties in Louisville, Ky., St. Louis and St.
Joseph, Mo.

A Washington special dispatch to the Post says that new treasury notes are circulating today, and are eagerly taken by Western men for home circulation.

The Philadelphia Press says that a number of secessionists were found in ambush on the road over which Gen. McClellan passed on Friday to review Gen. Crook's Brigade. It is thought their object was his assassination. They were placed under a strong guard.

Washington, Aug. 25. Mrs. Phillips, wife of lawyer Phillips, was arrested on Saturday, charged with holding treasonable communication with the Rebels.

Orders have been issued for the arrest of Mrs.
Senator Gwin, now at West Point. Her trunk was searched, in which was found drawings of the Federal fortifications on the Potomac, traced from the original maps in the War Department.

It is reported that Lieut. Kimmel of the 21 Cavalry, who, with a part of his Regiment was at Bull Run, has resigned, and accepted a captaincy in the Rebel army. He had the commission before the battle.

Authentic intelligence from Manassas states that since the battle at Bull Run, the Rebels have made extraordinary efforts to get reinforc-ments, drawing large forces from Tennessee, which had been held there for defensive operations on the Mississippi.

The State Department has advices from all our foreign ministers. They state confidently that there will be no movement among the European Governments to recognize the Rebels, so long as the Federal Government keeps forces in the Rebel States and holds Washington.

A gentleman from Louisville states that during the recent threatened riot in that city, Senator Breckinridge, instead of trying to prevent an attack upon the Federal troops, as has been stated, sought to excite it, declaring that if he had men enough to back him, he would drive them out of the city.

The government is considering the propriety of organizing a national detective police force, to be distributed in the principal cities throughout the country.

A woman fresh from Beauregard's quarters was arrested to-day at Alexandria. Some twenty letters addressed to prominent citizens in Washington and Alexandria were found concealed in her under garments.

All the mutineers, including the 2d Maine regiment, embarked this afternoon for Dry Tor-tuques.

The Typhoid fever has appeared in the government hospitals, attacking nearly all the sick and wounded.

From Missouri.

Jefferson City, Mo., Aug. 25. The following proclamation has been issued:

Whereas the power of the civil authority is insufficient to protect the lives and property of the citizens of the State, I, Hannibal H. Gamble, Governor of Missouri, do call into the active service of the State, 42,000 men of the militia of the State, assigning 6000 as the quota to each military district, which is the same as a Congressional district. The force thus called into service will be, as far as possible, a volunteer force, and will consist of 10,000 cavalry and 32,000 infantry. If the number of volunteers should exceed this requisition, the excess will be held as a reserve corps. If there should be a deficiency, it may be necessary to resort to a draft.

The Adjutant General will issue to the Division Inspectors of the several military districts the orders necessary to carry into effect this requisition. The force called out will be for six months, unless peace in the State shall be sooner restored. Arms will be furnished as rapidly as they can be had.

Given under my hand and seal of the State, at Jefferson City, this 24th day of August, in the year 1861. (Signed.) R. H. GAMBLE.

By the Governor.

M. OLIVER, Secretary of State.
Rolla, Mo., Aug. 24. Lieut. Col. Albert of the 3d Missouri regiment and eight or ten other officers, who have been prisoners in the hands of the rebels at Springfield, arrived this morning. They were released on parole, subject to such arrangements as may have been entered into between the Confederate States and the United States.

A great many contradictory reports as to the present and future movements of the rebels are in circulation, but the real purpose of the enemy can only be conjectured. They seem now to be more anxious to obtain subsistence than to make offensive movements.

St. Louis, Aug. 25. Mr. Caldwell, who was indicted for treason at the last term of the U. S.
Circuit Court was taken prisoner in St. Louis county by Col. Woodward's Home Guards, while at the head of 100 armed men. He was turned over by the military authorities into the hands of the U. S. Marshal on Saturday, and lodged in jail.

Springfield, Aug. 22. The correspondence of the St. Louis Democrat furnishes the following: Gen. Raines issued an order soon after his arrival to seize all medicines and hospital stores in the Federal hospital here, thus depriving about four hundred of our wounded men of medical treatment. A part of the medicine price.

With a few exceptions our sick and wounded are doing well, and will return to their homes in a few days. All our wounded could not be brought off the field in consequence of the scarcity of wagons, but they were treated well where they lay. Many of the wounded were stripped of all clothing by the enemy and sent to town naked, and every man lying on the field had his pocket picked.

Washington, Aug. 26. Commander Porter, who was recently deprived of the command of the sloop-of-war St. Marys on suspicion of disloyalty to the Government, has voluntarily returned to Washington.

He to-day, it is understood, presented to the Navy Department an elaborate document with proofs in refutation of the charges against him, showing that forgery has been resorted to for the purpose of injuring and dishonoring him.

Gen. Banks is not blameable for the release of Hon. Mr. Boteler. He ordered Col. Leonard of the Massachusetts 13th to hold him, but the latter discharged him on his own responsibility.

FROM FORTRESS MONROE.

Gen. Wool on Flags of Truce.

SPIES ARRESTED.

K. G. C. in East Tennessee.

10,000 of them to lay waste the Country.

FORTRESS MONROE, August 26.

The Steamer Philadelphia has arrived from Washington, with 150 of the mutineers sentenced to two years' imprisonment at Tortuga. They have been sent temporarily to the Rip Rap.

A flag of truce arrived from Norfolk this morning with three ladies and a number of prisoners, captured by Rebel privateers. As the object of sending the flag was deemed rather inquisitive, Gen. Wool decided to detain them until tomorrow. It is high time that an end should be put to the constant intrusion of the enemy to obtain information. Whenever they think any important movement is on foot here, they are sure to be on hand with a flag of truce. Seven spies have been arrested and placed in confinement.

WASHINGTON, August 27.

Advices from East Tennessee state that the Knights of the Golden Circle at Camp Boone, near Clarksville, are preparing an expedition with 10,000 men to lay waste the country from Cumberland Gap, through East Tennessee and Kentucky, to the Ohio river, and along that river to Pennsylvania.

Fort Pickens has just been supplied with 30 heavy guns, munitions, and 3000 shells.

Through the agency of traitors, Gen. Mc-Clellan's plans for making a reconnaissance which would have resulted in cutting off the rebels this side of Fairfax was betrayed to the enemy, hence their recent stampede.

Saratoga, Pa., Aug. 26.—Wm. Halsey hailing from Ithaca was waited upon by a party of citizens at his hotel yesterday and requested to leave town in three hours or accept the alternative of riding out on a rail. He had given provocation beyond all endurance by endeavoring to induce parties to take the N. Y.
Day Book and by uttering the rankest treason.
He left precipitately.

St. Joseph, Mo., Aug. 26.—The Pony Express has been abandoned between St. Joseph and the station 110 miles west of this place.

Boston, Aug. 26. Hon. Joseph Holt, of Kentucky is now on a visit to this city.

Orders have been received from Washington to reit the Congress for blocking purposes.
The examination of Henry Blauvelt and Chas.
Perceval charged with murdering Cotton, mate of the barque Carrina before the U. S. Commissioners to-day resulted in their discharge.

Capt. Edward W. Smith has been appointed Aid of Gen. Hunter, who will command the Illinois Volunteers. Captain Smith is the son of the late President Smith.—Burlington Times.

A new post office has been established in the south village called "Huntington Centre," and A. H. Loveland appointed Postmaster.—Ind.
